

The Employers Council of Mendocino County represents over 190 private business employers in this rural county. The SBC proposal for long distance service will provide our members with more choice, savings, better service and convenience. We hope you will concur and provide us improved choice and service...